Club Judge – Course Enrolment

- Membership: Candidates do not need to hold membership of British Gymnastics
- Practical Sessions: Candidates are required to dress appropriately; this is a classroom-based course. There are no practical elements.
- Places available: 16

Aims of the Course

The Club Judge Award is the entry level to the British Gymnastics Trampoline Judging scheme. It is open to any candidate who is interested in judging and competitive trampolining.

Course Content

For all judging courses it is the club's responsibility to train candidates in the recognition of skills. Candidates must be familiar with the Trampolining Code of Points 2013 - 2016 and have knowledge of Trampolining moves and judging.

You do not have to have a coaching qualification to attend this course but you must be 15 years and over and have some Trampolining experience. The course will cover:

- Competition rules, structure and procedures
- Recording (individual and team)
- Execution judging routines up to a difficulty of 4.0
- 30 minute theory paper; 60% pass mark on all sections

Attendance on all dates is compulsory. You are required to complete both a written and judging exam on the second date of the course.

It is recommended that all candidates attend the course with the Trampolining Code of Points. This is available to download from the BG website.
